Kucinich Subcommittee Field Hearing to Probe Problems with Fishery Law Enforcement

Washington D.C. (February 19, 2010) – Chairman Kucinich (D-OH) today announced that the Domestic Policy Subcommittee will hold a field hearing at 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, March 2, 2010 entitled “Will NOAA’s New Leadership Address Serious Problems in Fishery Law Enforcement?” The hearing will be held in Kyrouz Auditorium, Gloucester City Hall, 9 Dale Avenue in Gloucester, Massachusetts.

The purpose of this hearing is to examine problems in National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration’s (NOAA) Office of Law Enforcement identified by the Department of Commerce Office of Inspector General, and NOAA’s agency response to those findings.
